SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC—TRY IT.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY JULY 31, 1885.

THE RIDGWAY PAIK MYSTERY.

No Light Thrown on Manie McLaughlin's Death by the Coroner's Inquest. PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—The coroner held his inquest into the death of Manie McLaughlin, the young girl who was found drowned in the Delaware river near Ridgway park a few days ago. The girl's mother testified that the deceased had admitted to her that she had visited "the park," accompanied by Annie Presl. This Mrs. McLaughlin thought, meant Fairmount park. Her daughter's death was a mystery to her. The girl's father said he had threatened to chastise Manie, if she remained out of the house after 10 o'clock at night, and admitted that when he heard of her death he remarked: "I thought something would happen to her that he meant by this he would not say."

Martin Myer, who lived near the girl's father, testified that on the evening of the drowning he saw the girl at Ridgway park sitting at a table with two men. He expressed to her his surprise at meeting her there, but had no further conversation with her. Dr. Stewart testified that the girl had come to her death by drowning. There were no external marks of drowning on the body, and the internal organs were in normal condition, with the exception of the brain, which was slightly congested. The other testimony was unimportant. Under the coroner's instructions the jury then brought in a verdict of "found drowned," which will allow the one to be reopened should further evidence be discovered.

SALT LAKE SAUCE.

Comerford Captured—Polygamist and the Wife Arrested—The Case. SALT LAKE, Utah, July 31.—Kennedy, the counterfeiter, who escaped from the city jail, was captured at Coalville, thirty-five miles east of here. El Harris, the oldest tobaccoist in Salt Lake, made an assignment. Liabilities and assets both small, less than $2,000 owed in the east.

A good deal of a sensation was created by Marshall serving subpoenas for witnesses to appear before the grand jury (October) against Angus Cannon and Milton Musser, the prominent Mormons serving a sentence for unlawful cohabitation. The term of the grand jury expires in October. The impression is that the new indictments will be found charging those with living with more than one woman. It is the opinion of some that the grand jury will be made up of former indictments and conviction. It is said to be the tactics of the prosecution those now in the penitentiary will all be made to serve double terms, as it is said that none of them have abandoned their polygamist relations after indictment, thinking that conviction would wipe out all scores up to the time they are released from the penitentiary.

RIEL'S TRIAL.

Nothing Startling Except That He Wanted One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

WINNIPEG, July 31.—In the trial of the remainder of the crown witnesses were examined and the prosecution continued. The evidence bore heavily on the part taken by the prisoner in inducing to rebellion and leading the Half-Breeds and merchants of the Lake of the Red River to rebellion. A brother of Riels identified a number of letters written by him to the people of the United States, in which he had commended the admiration and respect as a soldier and eminent statesman of the people of Canada. He also identified the people of the United States their heartfelt sympathy in their mournful loss. That his worship the mayor be instructed to convey the widow and family of the illustrious deceased their sincere condolence in their lamented bereavement.

Mayor Beaugrand will represent this city at the funeral.

The Tomb—Lighting. NEW YORK, July 31.—A large force of men are at work on the excavation for the temporary vault in Riverside park. It is the purpose to build a vault which will last for several years. One of the officers of the cemetery department, who was present, said he knew the time for the completion of the permanent tomb and the transfer to it of the remains of the deceased were easily made which will not take place until four or five years.

During the afternoon a violent storm, accompanied by lightning, drove the workmen to shelter. They had barely reached cover when a stroke of lightning descended within a few feet of the excavation. There was a terrible crash on the edge of the field, and a huge oak tree growing close upon the brink went tumbling down, bearing the leaves and limbs from several of its fellows in its fall.

Mr. Cleveland's Selection. WASHINGTON, July 31.—President Cleveland has been communicating with Mrs. Grant respecting the selection of pillars for Gen. Grant's remains. Upon receipt of the report of the committee on the selection the president immediately telegraphed Mrs. Grant for her suggestion she might desire to have the pillars placed in any position. Union general—last standing Sherman and Sheridan—should be selected she desired that some prominent general who had taken part in the Confederate army should also be invited to act as one of the pillar bearers. The president has not yet prepared a list of names.

Cowardly How of a Jealous Lover. PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—Michael McGirr and Charles Eisenhower have been courted Annie Crumie, of No. 161 Jefferson street, for some time. McGirr, however, was not to meet, and accordingly set different nights on which to do their love making. McGirr, in a jealous rage, followed his rival into an alley, where he plunged a knife into the back of the girl's neck. The girl witnessed the occurrence and informed a neighbor, who called McGirr's beat her until she was senseless. He also meted out the same punishment to the other, and not long after McGirr was roughly handled was the man overpowered. He was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

New Haven, Conn., July 31.—Professor Brooks and Frederick Mott, prominent residents of New Haven, Conn., started on a balloon ascension. The balloon was struck by lightning and was precipitated to the ground. The occupants were badly hurt, but it is not thought fatally.

THE SILENT COTTAGE.

NOT EVEN A WORD TO REST ON THE DEAD HERO'S COFFIN.

Mrs. Grant Much Affected That All He Had Was Taken from Him—Dr. Newman's Address—The Biography. Memoirs—Temporary Tomb.

Mr. McGREGOR, N. Y., July 31.—The reason that Gen. Grant was not buried in his uniform was because he had none. His uniform of lieutenant general was sent to Washington with the other relics of his career last spring, and was transferred to the government. All his words went at the same time, and when Mrs. Grant saw a picture in an illustrated paper the other day representing the coffin with a sword resting upon it, she was much affected.

The general felt the parting with the sword he had the most keenly. He was less than half of all his other trophies, and it touched Mrs. Grant deeply that, now he was dead, there was not one of the sword he cherished so much to rest upon his coffin.

It was reported that Mrs. Grant would see the funeral. He will do so. Mrs. Thayer and others have offered their services to sing at the funeral here on Tuesday, but the offer has been declined with thanks. It is the design that the ceremonies shall be of the simplest possible character.

Dr. Newman has finished his funeral address. It will be a long one in length. One reason why Mrs. Grant does not give to the public the letter the general left for her, is that it mentions the names of a number of men now living, telling how the general had been deceived by those he supposed to be his friends, and explaining how he was lured into the meshes of Ward. The letter would make eight pages, closely written, of large sized writing paper.

One of the first shows of Col. Grant after all is over and the family is settled down will be to begin a biography of his father. The project is a general one, and it is said that the response as to the reports the family expect to read of it have been grossly exaggerated. Their guarantee share of the same up to office, where they are probably the true receipts from the book will not much exceed $100,000.

Canadian Condolence.

MONTREAL, July 31.—At a special meeting of the city council, it was unanimously resolved:

"That this council consider it their duty at this, their first meeting after the receipt of the mortal remains of the late Gen. and ex-President U. S. Grant, to give expression to and record their most profound sorrow at the bereavement and the irreparable loss of so distinguished a personage who, as commander-in-chief of the army, and as president of the United States, has commanded the admiration and respect as a soldier and eminent statesman of the people of Canada, and also to tender the people of the United States their heartfelt sympathy in their mournful loss. That his worship the mayor be instructed to convey the widow and family of the illustrious deceased their sincere condolence in their lamented bereavement."

Mayor Beaugrand will represent this city at the funeral.

KEEPING IT UP.

Simson Harris in the Third Suit Business in Toledo.

TOLDO, July 31.—Simson Harris arrived here from Chicago, in company with a lady, and registered at the Body house as "Simson Harris, T. C. and St. L., Chicago, and Winnie Ambrey Cincinnati."

The twin remained there for dinner. They were unable to pay their bill and were refused further accommodations and part of their baggage held as security. They went to the Grand Hotel, where Winnie remained all night and left for Cincinnati, a friend paying her bill and transportation. Harris remained in the city. He has drawn up a petition for $500,000 damages against the Telegram for an article published, naming him as insane; says such a statement is libelous and he means business. He sent the following telegram to Tom Campbell: "Three Toledo dogs prevent engagement. Make it Saturday afternoon. Warrants are issued for the arrest of James Connel, of the Commercial-Telegram, and Guff & Kemp, of the Body house, for criminal libel, for $250,000, in the United States Circuit Court. Enquirer must cease libeling me." He says he is here on legal business.

Cheap Excursion of the Season.

CINCINNATI, July 31.—The citizens of Cincinnati will be glad to hear that the gradually melting down into their shoes from the unusually severe and oppressive heat. There have been a number of tickets for a cool spot, somewhere, anywhere. Col. R. E. Miles, one of America's most popular and well known summer campers, has come to the rescue by announcing one of his popular excursions to Chicago, the "Windy City." The excursion will leave Cincinnati Saturday, August 1, tickets good for nine days, with stop-overs at principal points of interest along the great Monon route, over which the excursion will be made. Tickets for the round trip, including a lake-trip by steamer, cost but six dollars. Judging from the immense sales there will be several trains in the excursion. The Cincinnati will be quite depopulated by fresh air seekers.

Western Union's Canadian Rival.

MONTREAL, July 31.—The monopoly of the telegraph service of Canada by the Western Union is being challenged by the Great Northwestern is about at an end, as in about a month the Canadian Pacific railway and telegraph service between here and Winnipeg will be thrown open to the public. In telegraph circles here it is said that great efforts were made by Jay Gould to get control of the Canadian Pacific line, but they were unsuccessful. Negotiations are on foot for leasing a cable to connect the Canadian Pacific with Australia, China and Japan. The United States connections will probably be over the Vanderbilts railway system, with which the Pacific is connected.

Portland, From Alaska.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 31.—Professor Zahm, of Notre Dame college, South Bend, Ind., arrived here from a trip to Alaska. The professor, who has been in all parts of the world says the trip from Puget Sound to Alaska, surpasses anything in the world for scenery. He thinks it will become a great summer resort, with steamers making regular weekly trips. The last steamer brought down $100,000 in gold bullion, the result of the week's run of the Yukon to the island. The future of the country for mining is reported to be equal to that of Nevada. Senator Stanford, who was with the Duke of Dolph, of Oregon, returned on the same steamer.

The State Librarian.

CINCINNATI, July 31.—Rev. Dr. Pierson is the new state librarian. He is a native of Ohio, and was appointed by Gov. Hendricks last winter. There was much criticism of this appointment, which was made to please Cleveland. During the term of Cleveland one of Cleveland's defenders against the charges of immorality. As a preacher and counsellor, he has been successful. His defense had some weight. He is from Toledo, O., and up to last fall had always voted his republican ticket. He has quite a reputation as an author, and is much devoted to literary work.

A Fatal Bath.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, July 31.—The eldest daughter of L. E. Mills, grand secretary of the Iowa Legion of honor and aid, both about fifty years of age, were drowned at the Palisades, a summer resort. Mr. Mills was taken from the water unconscious. The three named and another daughter of Mr. Mills were bathing in the river and got into deep water. The Palisades are several miles from a railroad. Mills was alive when a messenger telephoned from a near station, but was unconscious, and it was thought would die unless assistance was soon secured.

Mail Crock Robbed.

GALVESTON, Tex., July 31.—The stage carrying the United States mail between Rio Grande City and El Paso, and the Mexican railroad was held up by two robbers, who examined the mail matter and departed, leaving with them the mail, including the registered mail. There were no passengers in the stage. The quarterly robbery of the postoffice at Rio Grande City, amounting to several hundred dollars, was in the stolen package. The robbers are undoubtedly in Mexico.

Wife Beater Lynched.

NEW ORLEANS, July 31.—A special to the Times Democrat from Baltimore was warned "At 2 o'clock July 31 or thirty mailed men battered down the jail door and took Thomas Beatty, a young man charged with beating his wife, out to a distant field and swung him off a limb with his feet a few inches from the ground. The crowd afterwards took down the body with bayonets. Beatty was the first white man lynched in Georgia for many years."

Rev. W. R. Davis, pastor of a colored Baptist Church, at Louisville, has been asked to resign by some of the officers of his church on the ground that he did not preach loud enough. The committee composed of the highest religious dignitaries of England have made a report confirming the truth of the fearful state of immorality existing in London at the present time, as exposed by the Pall Mall Gazette. The committee consisted of Cardinal Manning, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of London, and Samuel Morley, M. P. for Bristol, who say they are satisfied the Gazette's charges are substantially true.

"Let us practice civil-service reform, cautiously and without hypocrisy. Let us require in office the good men whom the Republicans have lauded down to us. But let us turn out the bad ones without apology. It is enough that a man in a Republican suit is a Republican, and a man in a Democrat suit is a Democrat, without further excuse."—Washington Post (Dem.)

The Post's idea to retain in office the good men the Republicans have handed down to us, will not suit the mass of Democrats throughout the country. There are plenty of good, honest men in the Democratic party who are just as competent to fill the public offices under Cleveland as any Republican in the land. No one, be he Democrat or Republican, can doubt this. We can see no good reason why the Post, or any other Democratic organ, should want a Republican to be honest or not, retained in office.

York Central was 1/2 lower. There was no monetary movement just after the opening, it was in fact declined. The market was immediately checked, and a general advance after the market followed, accompanied by much feverishness in the dealings, the grain ranging from 1/4 to 1/2 above the opening, but Western Union gained 1/2, United States 1/2, Lackawanna 1/2, and Lake Shore 1/2. The rally was checked soon after 10:30 o'clock and a fractional decline followed, which was again checked and the market recovered. Jersey Central has been the steady weak stock. The active list declining a per cent, and Western Union has been remarkable for its strength and activity. At 1:10 o'clock the market was quiet and strong at near the top prices of the day.

WIDE SWATH OF DEATH.

RAMPANT TRACK OF A RAGING STORM
AND ITS CASUALTIES.

Big Fight in a Camp Meeting at Menomonee Lake—Clara Louise Kellogg Badly Scared—A Terrible Devastation. Three Killed—All Wires Down.

MENOMONEE, Wis., July 31.—Menomonee Lake assembly now at work near this city has a severe storm of wind and rain. Tuesday night everybody got a complete drenching and some of the tents were blown over as a meeting was going on at the huge tabernacle. A storm of wind came up quickly, and snapped the halyards and away went a score of tents. A number of boats being on the lake near the grounds, an alarm sprang up lest some of the passengers should meet with an accident. The tabernacle was soon abandoned and everybody watched the lake.

Finally the boats, with the exception of one or two, came in safely, but parties in them were greatly frightened. One sail boat capsized, but nothing seriously followed. A steamer landed during the storm and the usual number of half fainting women and screaming children were promptly cared for.

Clara Louise Kellogg Scared.
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 31.—When the cyclone struck Moorhead, Minn., a chimney on a tower of the Grand Pacific hotel was blown down, going through a lower roof, thence through the attic floor, and falling down into a bed room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. Over a ton of brick and mortar fell but the couple had no bones broken though they are badly cut and bruised.

The plastering was also knocked off the room below which was occupied by Clara Louise Kellogg.

She fainted, then screamed and darted into the hall in her night dress. The fire alarm was turned in and the hose put on before it was discovered what was the matter. It took an hour to quiet the sinner, remove the brick from Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's room and attend to their needs.

Terrible Devastation.
DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 31.—A tornado, accompanied by a heavy rain, has visited this city. Several buildings about the city in the process of erection were badly damaged. The top story of Albion's clock storage warehouse was blown down and a new brick store belonging to W. G. Waters. Trees were leveled in all parts of the city, chimneys were torn from many buildings, awnings were torn to shreds, and a large portion of the decorations in honor of Gen. Grant's death were blown off. In the lumber yards flying timber was seen in every direction, and many piles of lumber belonging to the Standard Lumber company and Knapp, Stout & company were leveled. The storm raged for twenty minutes.

Three Killed.
MORRISON CITY, Iowa, July 31.—During a severe thunder storm, which followed a season of terrible heat, the house of Edward Salisbury was struck by lightning and three persons killed. The bolt came down a chimney in the room in which the family were sitting. Mrs. Salisbury was struck on her head by a piece of brick cut killed. Two children were in the path of the fluid and were fatally hurled about the face and head.

All Wires Down.
CHICAGO, July 31.—A terrible wind and rain storm, accompanied by lightning, has been raging throughout Minnesota since 3 o'clock. All telegraph wires between Chicago and St. Paul have ceased working, so that the damage and extent of the storm circuit is not known.

Black and White.
CHICAGO, July 31.—Ben Coleman, a young colored man, and Kate Collins, an eighteen-year-old Irish girl, appeared before Justice White with a license and desired to get married. The justice found a pretext for refusing to tie the knot, and confiscated the license. The couple, it is said, went to the residence of a priest and were married. The mother of the girl expressed herself that although she knew nothing of it till now, she supposed she would have to consent. The girl's father is very indignant, and threatens to shoot both the girl and her dusky husband. Coleman stated his folks lived in Cincinnati.

Father Patrick Reilly Dead.
WILMINGTON, Del., July 31.—The Very Rev. Father Patrick Reilly, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church and vicar general of the diocese of Delaware, died of general debility after several months' illness, aged 78. The deceased had been in the ministry fifty-one years and was a classmate of Cardinal McCloskey at St. Mary's college, Emmetsburg. The funeral will take place next Tuesday.

Massey Nominated.
RICHMOND, Va., July 31.—The Democratic State convention resumed its session at 10 o'clock. The attendance was small. After many nominating speeches in favor of John E. Massey and John S. Burt for lieutenant governor, a ballot was taken, resulting in the nomination of John E. Massey. Before the ballot was completed Massey was declared the nominee by acclamation.

Petting for a Life.
TAMPA, Fla., July 31.—A petition to the governor is being circulated in Manatee county for the pardon of Bidwell, one of the Sars Sars society, recently sentenced to be hanged, and it is being largely signed. Six of the jurymen who convicted him have signed it. He is believed by many to be innocent, and an effort will be made to obtain a new trial.

Joe Harris Released.
CHICAGO, July 31.—Joseph Harris, the West Side saloonkeeper, who was arrested by Detroit detectives and held for a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Anthony, as there was no affidavit that Harris had been arrested for the commission of any crime, the arrest having been made on the authority of a telegram.

The organized cigar makers in the United States number 12,000, and hold their National convention in Cincinnati next month. They get $500,000 in strikes, $200 in traveling cigar makers and $50,000 for sick benefits last year.
